Assignment

1. In BlackBoard, edit your wiki. Add six sections headings: Title, Introduction, Method, Results, Discussion, and References. In this assignment, you will move all of the information you currently have into these sections.

2. Write your Title.
   a. List the names of all team members
   b. Give the name of your paper

3. Write your Introduction.
   a. Write one or two paragraphs, summarizing what you learned about your topic. Be sure to use your own words. If you use someone else’s exact words and do not put it in quotation marks, this is plagiarism. If you use someone else’s exact words and you do put it in quotes, this is not plagiarism; however, the purpose of the introduction is to summarize what you found in your own words, and so you will not receive any credit for quoting other people. This section should be no less than 200 words and no more than 500 words.

4. State your Research Purpose.
   a. At the end of the Introduction, state the two groups you will be comparing. State the variable you will be comparing them on.

5. Draft your Method Section.
   a. In your Method section, create a subsection called “Participants”. State which two groups you are comparing.
   b. Create another subsection called “Measures”. State the exact wording of the item that you are comparing them on.
   c. Create another subsection called “Procedures”. State that participants completed this item as part of a larger online survey.

6. Write your References Section
   a. State the authors and titles of the three papers you read.
